Chapter 1 by Jaylen Richardson

The dangerous lazer swords on star wars are called lightsabers. There are really dangerous.

Chapter 2 by Jonnie Green- Movie Maker Jedi and Super Awesome Story Writer (P.S. This is a SECRET identity)

The blades are weightless and similar in composition to plasma. These blades are the purest form of electricity, and they give out no heat.

These weapons are created with a rare type of crystal that grow on Ilum. These crystals are either blue, green, or violet. These are used by Jedi to make their lightsabers.

Sith use synthetic crystals that create a more powerful red blade than the natural Ilum crystals utilized by the Jedi.
